

CALLING ALL RED WINE LOVERS!

This mixed case is chalk full of wonderful crowd pleaser wines that over deliver on quality for a great price! All come in 5g/l of sugar or less.

South Africa

Pavillion Shiraz/Cabernet Sauvignon

$12 x 3 bottles

Boschendal winery sits about an hour's drive from Cape Town. Established in 1685, which gives them the esteemed credit that it is the second oldest wine farm in South Africa. This wine is extra dry, medium to full body with soft tannins. It has a ripe black fruit flavour with a touch of spice and vanilla oak tones. Pair this with ribs or lamb shank on the barbecue!

Argentina

Los Cardos Dona Paula Malbec

$11.95 x 3 bottles

Dona Paula was established in 1997 in Mendoza and is certified sustainable. This full-bodied wine is extra dry and has aromas of plum, cherry and violets and flavours of red berries, black pepper. This also, is a great BBQ wine – try your favourite beef burger or if you prefer a Spanish flair, stuffed empanadas!

France

Laurent Miquel Merlot

$14.20 x 3 bottles

Laurent Miquel is the 8th generation winemaker! His family acquired their first winery in the Languedoc region in 1791. Let's just say he knows a thing or two about making a well-balanced, medium body merlot. This wine has aromas of blueberry, cassis, vanilla and violet. Enjoy this with lamb stew or a roast of pork.

Chile

Alario Cabernet Sauvignon

$9.30 x 3 bottles

Full body, smooth, velvety tannins describe this food friendly Cabernet Sauvignon! Aromas of ripe cherry, black plum and green bell pepper with an extra dry finish makes this a crowd pleaser! Serve with stuffed green pepper or a steak sandwich. So versatile!
